

James Edwards joins Francis Tuttle as the Assistant Superintendent of Operations to provide guidance and support to the Facility Management and Development, Culinary, Safety & Security and Information Technology Services teams. James has spent the past 11 years at Deer Creek Public Schools where he provided leadership to the district first as the District Athletic Director and then as the Chief Financial Officer. James also spent 15 years as a Teacher, Coach and Testing Coordinator at Kellyville and Edmond Public Schools.

James is married to Stacy Edwards who is also a career educator and is currently the Assistant Superintendent at Mustang Public Schools. Together they have two awesome children, Peyton & Jace. Peyton, who has been a teacher in Frisco, Texas, is married to Evan Holmes and has a daughter (Berkley) and another daughter (Remi) on the way this year. Jace recently graduated from Oklahoma State University and is beginning his career as a Civil Engineer in Oklahoma City.
