

Tracy Skinner became the Associate Superintendent of Francis Tuttle Technology Center in December 2021. She has primary responsibility for the Career Planning Center, Marketing & Communications, Professional Development, Project HOPE and Strategic Planning in her role.

Before her employment at Francis Tuttle, Tracy was the Assistant Superintendent of Academics with Oklahoma City Public Schools. Tracy began her career in the classroom at Will Rogers Elementary in Putnam City Schools in 1993. She then served as the principal of Deer Creek Middle School and Deer Creek High School for several years before joining Mustang Public Schools as the Executive Director of Secondary Schools. She was then named Deputy Superintendent at Mustang Public Schools, where she led the Curriculum and Human Resources Department before joining Oklahoma City Public Schools.

Skinner graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Music Education from Oklahoma City University and a Master of Education in Administration from the University of Central Oklahoma in 1998. She is currently working on her doctorate at the University of Oklahoma.

Skinner's husband, Todd, is a retired educator and was an educator in Putnam City for 34 years. The couple has a daughter, Addye, currently in college at the University of Oklahoma.
